

SafetyCurtain

An international lifeline for performers at risk across a dangerous world

SafetyCurtainRaiser for performers in peril overseas to coincide with the launch of THE BIG GIVE Xmas Challenge

Bill Paterson & Celia Imrie - Presidents of SafetyCurtain (formerly IPAT) - request the pleasure of your company for an evening of festive songs, stories and celebration!

SafetyCurtain Presidents Bill Paterson & Celia Imrie
with chair Jo Cameron Brown

Where: Blacks Club, 63 Dean Street, Soho W1
— good ventilation & maximum 45 guests

Tuesday 30 November from 7.30pm - 11pm

We ask for a suggested minimum donation of £50, which is worth £125 to SafetyCurtain after matching and Gift Aid.

Your donations will unlock matching Big Give pledges made during the summer.

Please make your donation of £50 here
<http://bit.ly/safetycurtain-biggive2021> between 12 noon and 9pm on 30 November

— on the door is fine!

We will be providing a welcoming glass, Blacks' delicious canapés, a short musical & spoken entertainment with fabulous guests, followed by a raffle with wow factor prizes!

Come and find out about the help we are providing around the world to performers who are struggling to survive and risking their lives to be who they are, from Belarus to Zimbabwe

— Here are a few of our recent beneficiaries reactions

Thatch House Theatre Initiative, Nigeria - It is with gratitude that I write you this morning. We cannot contain our joy that you find us worthy of your support. We are grateful and assuring you that you will not be disappointed.

Myanmar Musicians - We are delighted to hear that SafetyCurtain will support traditional Burmese performing artists. As a local who has been going through such a political and covid problems, I have been seeing many colleagues who have to undergo terrible situation than mine. Your grant help them to relieve from their hardship they are facing every day basic. Thanks again for your support!

RSVP

secretary@safetycurtain.org.uk to guarantee your place